

TBS/GTDC 5(5165) P3/ ISO 22310:2006 - Information and documentation – Guidelines for standards drafters for starting records management requirements in standards

TANZANIA BUREAU OF STANDARDS

SCOPE

This Draft standard allows the appropriate incorporation of records requirements, which are applicable to all standards that require creation retention of record, into other standards. It also highlight the different that need to be considered as component of a comprehensive record management framework

This draft standard is intended for use by all bodies involved in the development of record management or documentation requirement in standards. It can also be used by non-standards development organization which are considering or are in the process of developing records management requirements in standards/ or comparable documents

DRAFT FOR PUBLIC COMMENT ONLY