

MANAGEMENT SYSTEM CERTIFICATION SECTION

MSC/POL/01: POLICY FOR IMPARTIALITY

Tanzania Bureau of Standards Certification Body (TBS CB) is committed to offer Management System Certification Service to all organizations in an impartial manner and fulfilling the requirements of ISO/IEC 17021-1. This policy provides commitment of TBS CB on the management of impartiality with regard to various interested parties such as auditors, technical experts, observers, accreditation and government regulatory bodies.

TBS CB has mechanism to identify and address risks and threats to impartiality.

All audit personnel signs the code of conduct and ethics to commit themselves to remain impartial in all their dealings with clients of the CB.

In case the personnel have reasons that can compromise impartiality or the independence in dealing with the client of the CB, they shall inform the SCM by filling impartiality form.

Whenever there is a threat to impartiality with regards to audit, the CB shall make sure that the audit team used is free from that threat.

TBS CB declares that it does not take part in consulting activities regarding development and implementation of management systems of which it certifies.

There shall be no pressure of any kind (financial, trade, administrative, moral or other) over the manager and personnel of CB regarding execution of their obligations as the certification body according to ISO/IEC 17021-1.

TBS CB shall not provide internal audit for its certified clients. TBS CB shall not certify a management system for which it has conducted internal audit for two years after the last internal audit.
